MORALE OF CREWS:

Attitude and morale overall remains good; some fatigue starting to show with a few individuals, this is due to hiking in steep rocky terrain.

INJURIES:

No serious or major injuries; some minor blisters, sore feet and muscles.

MESSAGES:

A crewmember from the Job Corps# 1 crew received a minor cut to his toe; This occurred when his was cutting brush with a chainsaw, and experienced a kickback, resulting the chain making contact with his boot, the chain cut through the boot, resulting in a minor laceration. The individual was treated by the medical staff at the ICP, and put on two days light duty in camp, will be back with the crew on 08\23\2015, continue to be as to avoid hiking.

A crewmember from the AOICC Interagency# 4 Crew continues to experience problems with his eye, the individual injured the eye during windy conditions early in the assignment. The individual wears contact lenses, and had got sand underneath the lenses. The individual will be taken to the doctor to be reexamined, and decision will be made, to whether he can continue on light duty, or release him, and get him out of conditions, that may adding to the irritation.
